PART A – NEWS

1. Amendment to Monash Research Fund (MRF) Near Miss funding guidelines

The Research Office has advised that the following correction has been made to the guidelines for 2005 MRF Project Grants "near-misses":

“Awardees may request a carry forward of unexpended funds by no later than 31 October 2005 [instead of 2006].”

PART B - EVENTS

2. Australian Synchrotron Community Open Day

Date and time

Sunday, 20 March 2005 from 10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Location

Wellington Road, Clayton (corner Blackburn Road)

The Australian Synchrotron Project is holding an open day that will be a once-only opportunity to see inside the synchrotron machine tunnels before installation of the machine starts.

You, along with your friends and family, are invited to come along and find out what the synchrotron will be used for, how it works, and to enjoy free kids activities and a sausage sizzle. A ceremony to mark the completion of the building will be held at 11:00 am.

Entry to the site is from the section marked 'Entry' and parking is free.

There is no need to register.

Further information

www.synchrotron.vic.gov.au

3. Transport Research at Monash (TR@M) Workshop

Does your research have relevance to the movement of people or freight? If so the TR@M workshop could be of value to you.

The TR@M workshop aims to stimulate multidisciplinary transport research at Monash University and build on the wide range of research interests spread across all faculties that are of relevance to the transport sector. Guest speakers will include the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Richard Larkins; Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research) Professor Edwina Cornish; Ms Gwyn Morgan (Research Office) and external speakers addressing opportunities for multidisciplinary research in transport.

Dates

Thursday, 31 March 2005 and Friday, 1 April 2005

Much of the first day will be devoted to brief presentations from Monash researchers while the second day will examine how multidisciplinary transport research could be fostered at Monash University through the development of a transport research network. Researchers from all faculties who have interests related to transport are encouraged to attend and participate.

Venue

Bayview Conference Centre, Clayton

Registration and further information

4. Monash University's first Sustainability forum: "Making Sustainability Happen?"

This forum is the first in a series of monthly forums co-hosted by Monash Environment Institute, Monash Environmental Alumni, the School of Geography and Environmental Science, and the postgraduate environmental student association. This series will feature prominent speakers, provide opportunities for discussion, debate and social and professional networking between all students, staff and alumni with an interest in environment and sustainability. Light refreshments will be available.

Date and time

Wednesday, 6 April 2005 from 5:00 – 7:00 pm

Guest speaker

Dr Ian McPhail, Victorian Commissioner for Environmental Sustainability

Venue

Lecture Theatre R6, Rotunda (Building 8), Clayton Campus

RSVP

RSVP by Thursday, 31 March 2005 to Ms Bianca Roggenbucke:

Email: Bianca.Roggenbucke@arts.monash.edu.au

The Research Office maintains a page of upcoming news and events for researchers at www.monash.edu.au/resgrant/general/latestnews/index.html

PART C - FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

6. Monash-King's Conference Grants

The Monash vice-chancellor and principal of King's College London have committed funds of $125,000 and £50,000, respectively, to support five joint conferences over five years. Four of these will be at the Monash Prato Centre in Italy and one at the Monash South African campus in Johannesburg. Departments and schools at King's and Monash are invited to submit joint proposals for a conference in 2006.

Further information, guidelines and application form

<http://www.monash.ac.uk/conferences/kcl-monash-conference-series-grants.html>

Deadline for applications

Friday, 18 March 2005 to the Monash University London Centre (monash@kcl.ac.uk).

7. Human Frontier Science Program (HFSP)

The HFSP supports international collaborations in basic research focused on complex mechanisms of living organisms. The NHMRC will contribute approximately $670,000 in 2004/05 to support HFSP programs with annual budget of about $70 million.

Particular emphasis is placed on:

- bringing scientists together from a range of fields such as physics, mathematics, chemistry, computer science, bioinformatics, nanoscience and engineering together with biologists; and
- supporting novel, innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to understanding complex biological systems; and supporting scientists early in their careers.

There is a current call for Research grants and two types are available:

- Young Investigators' Grants - for teams of scientists who are all within 5 years of establishing an independent laboratory and within 10 years of obtaining their PhDs.
- Program Grants - for independent scientists at all stages of their careers, although the participation of younger scientists is especially encouraged.

Please note that Australian researchers can apply as Principal Applicants on Research Grants under this Program as of 2005.

Deadline to register for a password

Monday, 21 March 2005

Deadline for Letter of Intent

Thursday, 31 March 2005

8. Fresh Innovators: call for nominations now open

Fresh Innovators is a national competition to select 16 early-career entrepreneurs to present their work in Sydney during the Innovation Festival in April to audiences including the media, business groups, students and the general public.

Why nominate for Fresh Innovators?

Fresh Innovators offers the potential for wide media exposure for the work of your organisation. The scheme also encourages and recognises the best young innovators and entrepreneurs from the fields of science, technology and engineering. It allows them to develop expertise in presenting their ideas clearly to a general audience and to the media. The innovator judged by the organisers to have most successfully met the aims of "Fresh Innovators" will receive a study tour to the UK courtesy of and coordinated by the British Council.

What will it involve?

The 16 successful nominees will:

- present their innovation to audiences including the press, students, the public and relevant businesses and government bodies in Sydney during the Innovation Festival;
- have access to experienced science communicators to advise on their presentation and media release;
- undertake a media conference and further media interviews;
- swap ideas with other participants, and attend the Fresh Innovators dinner; and
- participate in a one day media training course and in a debriefing workshop where they will have the opportunity to review the media reports of their work.

Travel and accommodation will be provided for participants from outside Sydney.

Selection criteria

- The innovation must have been developed in Australia or by an Australian;
- Applicants must include references demonstrating the utility of the innovation and evidence that it is functional and on the track to making a difference in business or in the community;
- The applicant and innovation must not have had significant media coverage;
- Applicants must demonstrate their capacity to liaise with commercial partners and other end users;
- Applicants must demonstrate their ability to present the innovation to a lay audience in an informative, interesting and easily visual way;
- The innovation must be cleared for presentation to the public and the media; and
- Applicants must be willing to give talks upon their return home from the program.

Research teams may nominate, but a single person who has played a substantial role in the research must be named as spokesperson. Only he or she will be invited to present the work.

Preference will be given to innovators in the early stages of their career and without an established media profile. (For researchers, this would normally mean within 5 years of the award of their PhD.)

Deadline for nominations

Monday, 21 March 2005 with Fresh Innovators

Further information and application form

9. Victoria Prize and Fellowships 2005

Do you know of a Victorian leading scientist, engineer or innovator whose work deserves rewarding? Are you a young scientist, engineer or innovator working in research? Need to advance your ideas and contacts?

The Victorian Government's annual prestigious Victoria Prize and Fellowships are now open.

Totalling over $250,000, the Victoria Prize and Fellowships are one of Australia's most valuable innovation awards and are designed to reward excellence and encourage research, development and commercialisation.

Eligibility

Applications are open to any young researcher working in private enterprise or research institutions.

About the awards and fellowships

- $50,000 Victoria Prizes: for a leading scientist or engineer whose groundbreaking discovery or innovation is advancing knowledge and has the clear potential to be commercialised.
- $18,000 Victoria Fellowships: to enable young researchers and innovators to travel overseas on a short-term study mission to pursue specialist training or to develop a commercial idea.

Deadline for applications

Tuesday, 29 March 2005 with the Research Office.

It is anticipated that the winners will be publicly announced in August 2005.

Further information, guidelines and application form

www.innovation.vic.gov.au

Update: please note that the previous deadline for this scheme given in Faculty of Science News Bulletin for Research Staff Bulletin 04/2005 (2 March 2005) was Thursday, 7 April 2005 with the Department of Innovation, Industry and Regional Development. The Research Office deadline is Tuesday, 29 March 2005.

10. ARC Linkage—Infrastructure Equipment and Facilities (LIEF) 2006

The ARC Linkage Infrastructure Equipment and Facilities (LIEF) program provides funding for collaborative proposals by two or more institutions for larger equipment and facilities. Funding is for the development of research infrastructure in higher education institutions. The minimum grant under this program is $100,000. Up to 75 per cent of the total cost (inclusive of GST) may be requested.

Dates and deadlines

- STAGE 1 (deadline: Wednesday, 30 March 2005)
Intending applicants are asked to submit written Expressions of Interest (Eol) to the Research Office. At this stage, there is no commitment to supporting any Eol. Please also send a copy of the Eol to the Faculty of Science office.
- STAGE 2 (deadline: Monday, 4 April 2005)
Deputy and Pro Vice-Chancellors (Research) review the combined Victorian universities' Eols and determine which should go forward.
- STAGE 3 (deadline: Friday, 15 April 2005; Friday, 29 April 2005)
Intending applicants who have successfully progressed to Stage 3 are notified by the RO via a certification form by 8 April 2005. The certification form must then be returned to the RO by 22 April 2005 with authorisation from the head of school and the Associate Dean, Research (ADR). This document is the record of the University's commitment to the project, and will be approved by the DVC (Research).
- STAGE 4 (deadline: to be advised, but late May 2005)
Final applications are prepared and sent through the RO to the ARC. The final dates for this last stage will be notified as soon as they are known.

Deadline for Expressions of Interest (Eol)

Wednesday, 30 March 2005 with the Research Office

(→ Please also send a copy to the Faculty of Science office)

11. Australian Stem Cell Centre - Conference Grants and Travel Awards

The Australian Stem Cell Centre (ASCC) - Conference Grants and Travel Awards are available to enrolled postgraduate research, masters or doctoral students and postdoctoral fellows across all areas of research relevant to the development of the stem cell industry in Australia, including: science, medicine, veterinary science, biotechnology, social sciences, ethics, patent law and venture capital.

- Conference Grants are to be used to assist with conference registration, travelling expenses, and accommodation. Grants of up to $5000 will be competitively awarded by the ASCC. In this round, the ASCC is particularly keen to support applicants who wish to attend the 3rd International Society for Stem Cell Research in San Francisco, USA from 23 to 25 June 2005. Details of this conference can be found at www.isscr.org/meetings/.
- The Travel Award program encourages postgraduate students and fellows to visit and / or work in an international laboratory at a leading research institute or university with a view to building on existing research projects and collaborations and gaining exposure to new techniques and international environments. Grants of up to $12,500 for overseas travel and $7000 for travel within Australia will be competitively awarded by the ASCC.

Deadline for applications

Thursday, 31 March 2005 with the Australian Stem Cell Centre (ASCC)

12. The Cancer Council Victoria: Postdoctoral Cancer Research Fellowships

The Cancer Council Victoria is offering two fellowships as a way of providing research assistance to Victorian PhD students at the time of thesis submission. A strong case must be made to continue in the present project group for a further year.

Benefits

The fellowships are offered for one year, and will be paid to the host institute at the NHMRC Personnel Support Package (PSP) Level 3 rate of $61,000 per annum. The PSP covers all salary and salary on-costs (for example, payroll tax, worker's compensation, leave loading, compulsory and contributory superannuation) as well as some additional support for minor operational maintenance, such as postage, phone / fax, printing, stationery, and computer hardware.

Eligibility

Applicants must have submitted their thesis between 1 October 2004 and 31 March 2005

Deadline for applications

Monday, 4 April 2005 (5:00 pm) with the Cancer Council Victoria

13. Australian Flora Foundation (AFF): Research Grants

The Australian Flora Foundation (AFF) is inviting applications for grants to support original scientific research on the biology and cultivation of Australian plants, commencing from December 2005. The Foundation expects to support between two (2) and four (4) projects at $5,000 - $12,000 each in 2006 with possible extension into 2007.

The AFF will consider all relevant applications, with special interest in the following categories:

General

- Conservation of Australian plant diversity;
- Plant species with potential for cultivation;
- Cultivation of Australian plants; and
- Rare and endangered plants.

Targeted areas

- Projects that address aspects of dryland salinity or mycorrhizal associations of WA Fabaceae.

Deadline for Expressions of Interest (EOI)

Monday, 4 April 2005 with the Australian Flora Foundation (AFF). Full Applications are due by mid June 2005.

Full applications will be invited from those which best fit the AFF criteria. An EOI is to be submitted electronically as an email attachment to richard.williams@uq.edu.au.

14. Australian Research Council (ARC): Linkage Projects 2006

The objectives of the ARC Linkage–Projects are to:

- Encourage and develop long-term strategic research alliances between higher education institutions and other organisations, including within industry in order to apply advanced knowledge to problems, or to provide opportunities to obtain national economic or social benefits.
- Enhance the scale and focus of research in Designated National Research Priorities and associated Priority Goals.
- Foster opportunities for postdoctoral researchers to pursue internationally competitive research in collaboration with industry, targeting those who have demonstrated a clear commitment to high quality research;
- Provide industry-oriented research training to prepare high-calibre postgraduate research students; and
- Produce a national pool of world-class researchers to meet the needs Australian industry.

Deadline for applications

Round 1

- Thursday, 24 March 2005: deadline for requests for eligibility and exemption with the ARC
- Friday, 22 April 2005: deadline for full applications with the Research Office
- Friday, 6 May 2005: deadline for full applications with the ARC

Round 2

- Friday, 14 October 2005: deadline for requests for eligibility and exemption with the ARC
- Monday, 14 November 2005: deadline for full applications with the Research Office
- Friday, 25 November 2005: deadline for full applications with the ARC

15. Plant Nutrition Trust Awards 2005

The scheme has been established to encourage and promote research and technology transfer in the mineral nutrition of plants, soil fertility and fertiliser and soil amendment technology, and includes areas where these impinge on other fields such as plant breeding.

The Trust invites applications for awards to assist in carrying out a study tour or to attend a conference or such other activity related to the stated objectives. In making an award, an applicant's scholastic achievement and recent contribution to industry, research or technology transfer and their potential for future contribution will be considered. The Amount of each award will depend on circumstances, but is likely to be under $2000.

In 2004 there are to be two categories of awards are offered:

- Alf Anderson Award: applicants should be actively involved in work in any of the areas of plant nutrition mentioned above
- Sam Tisdale Award: applications should have a strong emphasis on sulfur nutrition of plants

Applicants must be Australian citizens or permanent residents based in Australia, except that for the Sam Tisdale Award, Australian citizens may sponsor candidates from Asia and the south west Pacific region.

Deadline for applications

Friday, 15 April 2005 with the Plant Nutrition Trust

16. Rolex Awards for Enterprise 2006

Australian applications for the Rolex Awards for Enterprise 2006 are open. This is a worldwide philanthropic program that recognises the spirit of enterprise in visionary individuals, providing financial support and recognition for projects that advance human knowledge and well-being.

The Awards are presented every two years in five areas:

- Science and Medicine;
- Technology and Innovation;
- Exploration and Discovery;
- The Environment; and
- Cultural Heritage.

A project may be submitted in almost any field of endeavour, provided it contributes to the betterment of humankind. Anyone of any age, from any country is eligible to apply.

PART D –AWARDS AND PRIZES

18. 2005 Prime Minister's Prizes for Science

Nominations are now open for the 2005 Prime Minister's Prizes for Science. There are three categories of award:

- The Prime Minister's Prize for Science;
- Science Minister's Prize for Life Scientist of the Year; and
- Malcolm McIntosh Prize for Physical Scientist of the Year.

Deadline for nominations

Friday, 8 April 2005 with the Department of Education, Science and Training (DEST)

19. Research Australia's "Thank You" Day Awards 2005

Research Australia is now calling for nominations for the 2005 "Thank You" Day Awards. The Awards recognise and honour special Australians and companies who have made outstanding contributions to health and medical research through corporate giving, leadership, innovation, celebrity advocacy, volunteer contribution and philanthropy.

The six (6) types of awards are:

1. Health Research in the Media Award

This award is to recognise journalists/media personalities who have dedicated their time and efforts to promoting health and medical research through the media and raising the profile of research in the Australian community.

2. Lifetime Achievement

This award honours a significant lifetime commitment to supporting and promoting health and medical research.

3. Leadership and Innovation

This award recognises an individual or organisation who has shown exceptional leadership and/or innovation towards making health and medical research a higher national priority.

4. Macquarie Bank Foundation Great Australian Philanthropy Award

This award is to recognise and encourage personal philanthropic donations by an individual or family to health and medical research.

5. Celebrity Advocacy

This award recognises an Australian celebrity who has used their fame and influence in advocacy, fund-raising or building awareness of health and medical research.

6. Leadership in Corporate Giving

To recognise and foster involvement of Australian businesses, both small and large, in advancing health and medical research in Australia.

The Research Australia Board will review all nominations and select this year's winners. The awards will be presented at the annual "Thank You" Day Awards Dinner, to be held this year in Melbourne on Monday, 7 November 2005.
